

I must admit I do not fully understand NAB's position to limit or eliminate my access to traffic and weather info provided to me by XM satellite radio, whom I voluntarily pay for such service. However, it seems that it is an attempt to weaken a formidable competitor and I am dissapointed that a government agency would allow itself to be complicit in such an effort.